This hands-on-internet-based workshop is designed for individuals with Human Resource responsibilities. Participants will gain knowledge of web-sites with relevant occupational information, such as labor availability and cost; industry and employment trends, and more! Also, participants will get an in-depth look at Ohio's new labor exchange system called SCOTI (Sharing Career Opportunities and Training Information) and how businesses can place job openings directly into the system. A tour of the Career Center is available prior to; or immediately after the workshop.
